1-2

Rathkeale to Ardagh

9 km

At the northern end of Limerick Greenway, Rathkeale offers rich heritage, kayaking on the River Deel, and the Irish Palatine Heritage Centre. Heading towards Ardagh, pass stone bridges, visit The Old Station House near the Ardagh Chalice site, or make a wish at St. Kieran’s Holy Well. Parking is available at both Rathkeale and Ardagh.

2-3

Ardagh to Newcastle West

4 km

Ardagh, just 4km from Newcastle West, is a historic gem surrounded by stunning countryside—ideal for starting your Limerick Greenway journey. Nearby Newcastle West offers shops, dining, and attractions like Desmond Castle, Castle Demesne Park, and Cahermoyle House. Parking is available at Newcastle West for Greenway access.

3-4

Newcastle West to Barnagh

10 km

Located on the scenic incline between Newcastle West and Barnagh, the Barnagh Greenway Hub offers bike hire, a playground, and The Platform 22 Café. Highlights along the route include Ferguson’s Viaduct and the 115m Barnagh Tunnel. At 164m above sea level, the Barnagh viewing point offers stunning views. Parking is available at Barnagh.

4-5

Barnagh to Templeglantine

5 km

The short journey from Barnagh to Templeglantine passes under stone bridges and blooming embankments. Known as Glantine, the village has deep roots in Irish music and literature, with a unique Sliabh Luachra style. Just off the Greenway, it’s perfect for a relaxed visit. Parking is available at Templeglantine.

5-6

Templeglantine to Abbeyfeale

9 km

Leaving Templeglantine for Abbeyfeale, the peaceful Tullig Wood offers a scenic retreat rich in native trees and wildlife. Home to birds, bees, and butterflies, it plays a key role in Limerick’s natural heritage. Continue past Devon Road Station into the rugged beauty of the Sliabh Luachra region and Abbeyfeale.
